

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	3
Abbreviations	7
Introduction	8
Who are the referees?	9
A change in landscape	11
A different approach	12
Chapter 1	16
On a Personal note: The Beginning of the Journey	16
Early ministry	18
Four unusual episodes	20
Truth in the inward parts	24
The land of Israel	29
A different kind of judgement day	30
The end of a season	33
Chapter 2	35
The Gloomy Complexion of the History of the Church	35
The controversial figure of Arius	38
It all started at Aragon	43
Protestantism's most famous martyr	49
The beginnings of Anabaptism	54
The Picture of 2000 years	61
Chapter 3	69
The Confusing Landscape of Orthodox Confessions	69
The plain confessions of Scriptures	72
The Creed of 150 Fathers – 381 A.D.	80
The Christology of Chalcedon – 451 A.D.	82
The Curses of Constantinople – 553 A.D.	84
The Controversy over wills and natures – 681 A.D.	86
The Mock Synod of Hieria – 754 A.D.	87

The Fourth Lateran Council – 1215 A.D.	88
The Papal supremacy at Florence – 1439 A.D.	89
The Five Centuries after the Reformation	91
Chapter 4	99
The Road back towards true Scriptural Belief	99
The missing guideline	101
Back to the Word	103
Not a matter of picking and choosing	105
The error of replacement theology	107
Chapter 5	110
Reexamining the Idea of Fulfilment	110
The ones who were supposed to know	114
Light in the tunnel	118
Chapter 6	122
Revisiting the Scene of the First Century	122
So many men, so many minds	123
Paul and the Messiah	127
Self-acclaimed servant of Y’shua	133
Chapter 7	141
Reinstating the Set-apart Day of Rest	141
Soberness and honesty	142
The day of the Master	145
Traditional arguments for Sunday observance	152
The evidence of the New Testament	162
Chapter 8	172
Restoring the name of our Father	172
What the third commandment is all about	174
Yahweh in the rest of Scriptures	179
What leading scholars thought of the name	184
Why the name is neglected	187

Chapter 9	193
Reclaiming the Identity of the Messiah	193
Twenty centuries of non-conformity	195
A handful of opinions	200
The Biblical portrayal of the Messiah	205
The introduction of the Logos	220
Chapter 10	231
From Haziness to Clarity of Belief	231
A new articulation of belief	234
Filling up the gaps	239